ARTICLE 1 --AUTHORITY AND LEGALITY

- 1.01 The Olds College Faculty Association (OCFA) is the corporation consisting of Academic Staff Members that is empowered to act as a professional association on behalf of its membership as set out in the Post-secondary Learning Act of the Province of Alberta, and as governed by the Bylaws of the Association (See Appendix A, Article 1).
- 1.02 The Olds College Faculty Association will utilize Robert's Rules of Order for process and conduct in all Association meetings.

ARTICLE 2 --OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Olds College Faculty Association include the following:

- 2.01 To fairly represent the rights of Association members under the collective agreement.
- 2.02 To promote a satisfactory working relationship between the Association and the Olds College Board of Governors.
- 2.03 To act as bargaining agent for negotiating terms and conditions of employment for its membership.
- 2.03 To address any matters considered by the membership to be in the best interests of Olds College and the execution of its mandate and mission.
- 2.04 To promote freedom of speech and to ensure that academic freedom of Association members is maintained.
- 2.05 To promote continual scholarly effort and the professional development of its members.
- 2.06 To advance the standards of professional conduct as identified in OCFA's Code of Ethics, (Appendix B) for its members.
- 2.07 To maintain the interests and to improve the general welfare of its membership.
- 2.08 To foster academic and social fraternity among members.
- 2.09 To collaborate with other organizations and bodies having similar objectives.

ARTICLE 3 -- GRAMMATICISM AND DEFINITIONS

Whenever the singular or masculine is used herein, the same shall mean and include the plural and/or feminine as the context may require.

- 3.01 Annual General Meeting shall mean a meeting held in May or June with not less than five working days' notice to consider items shown as in Article 10.06 of the Bylaws.
- 3.02 Approved shall mean, unless otherwise specified, a simple majority vote of members in good standing and present.
- 3.03 Association shall mean the Olds College Faculty Association (OCFA), the academic staff association established pursuant to the provisions of the Post-secondary Learning Act and the Labour Relations Code of the Province of Alberta.
- 3.04 Board of Governors / Board shall mean the Board of Governors of Olds College.
- 3.05 Collective Agreement shall mean the collective agreement between the Board of Governors of Olds College and the Olds College Faculty Association and as required under the Post-secondary Learning Act and the Labour Relations Code of the Province of Alberta
- 3.06 College shall mean Olds College, the public college established pursuant to the Post-secondary Learning Act and the Labour Relations Code of the Province of Alberta of the Province of Alberta.

- 4.02.06 Associate Membership does not include the following:
- the right to vote,
 - the right to hold office as an Executive Board member or as a standing committee member,
 - the right to be elected or appointed as an official representative of the Association, and
 - access to terms and conditions afforded to Academic Staff Members by the Collective Agreement.

4.03 Honorary Membership

- 4.03.01 Honorary membership is granted to former Regular Members as an acknowledgement and affirmation of the Association's appreciation of the former member's outstanding, consistent, and dedicated service to the Association. This recognition is conferred upon individuals who have given extraordinary and exemplary service.

- 4.03.02 Nomination: The nomination shall be presented in writing to the Executive Board for consideration prior to recommending the candidate for membership to the Association not less than five days prior to the meeting at which it is to be considered. Following approval by the membership at a Regular Meeting, and written acceptance by the nominee, the honorary membership shall come into effect.

- 4.03.03 Honorary Members shall be eligible for the following:
- to attend social activities and functions by invitation, and
 - to participate in special committees of the Association.

- 4.03.04 Honorary membership does not include the following:
- the right to vote,
 - the right to hold office as an Executive Member or a standing committee member, and
 - the right to be elected or to be appointed as an official representative of the Association.

- 4.03.05 Honorary membership may be suspended as per Article 4.01.05 of the Bylaws.

4.04 Social Membership

- 4.04.01 Social membership may be granted to any college employee or former Association member at any Regular Meeting by a majority vote of the members attending in person.

- 4.04.02 Applications for Social membership shall be presented in writing to the Executive Assistant who shall present them for approval at the next Regular Meeting. Such membership shall entitle the member to attend activities and use facilities deemed to be social and/or recreational.
- 4.04.03 Social membership shall be deemed to expire on the 15th day of September each year following initial approval; however, if the member pays the required dues for the upcoming year before the expiry date, then that membership shall be renewed for the next twelve months and likewise for all subsequent years.
- 4.04.04 Social membership does not include the following:
- the right to attend any meetings of the Association,
 - the right to receive any minutes or correspondence of the Association except for specific notices or information dealing with the social and/or recreational activities of the Association,
 - the right to vote or to hold office as an Executive member or a Standing Committee member; however, they may be appointed to special committees, and
 - the right to be elected or to be appointed as an official representative of the Association.
- 4.04.05 Social Members may be suspended as per Article 4.01.05 of the Bylaws.
- 4.05 Membership Dues and Assessments (see Appendix D)
- 4.05.01 Membership dues shall be established at a meeting of the membership and shall remain in effect until changed at a subsequent meeting. Such dues shall be deducted by the Board according to Article 2 of the Collective Agreement.
- 4.05.02 To change dues, written notice of motion shall be given at least five working days before the meeting. Implementation of the change shall be in compliance with Article 2.02 of the Collective Agreement.
- 4.05.03 An Associate membership fee shall be established by the Association on a yearly basis. Any fee changes shall only become effective the day following the meeting at which the change was approved. Such fees shall be deducted by the Board as provided for in the Collective Agreement where applicable.
- 4.05.04 Social membership fees shall be established by the Association on a yearly basis. Any fee changes shall only become effective the day following the meeting at which the change was approved.
- 4.05.05 Honorary Members do not pay dues or fees.
- 4.05.06 A temporary increase in membership dues or any special, uniform assessment may be levied upon members at a Regular membership meeting, provided that five working days written notice thereof is given prior to such Regular membership meeting or at any Special meeting.

- 4.05.07 Members will be excused from paying regular monthly dues for the period of time during which they are receiving long-term disability benefits and for the period of time they are on a leave of absence.
- 4.05.08 A member may also be excused from paying regular monthly dues for just and reasonable cause as determined by the Executive Board. Correspondence directed to the membership may not be directed to those members excused from paying regular monthly dues.

4.06 General Conditions

- 4.06.01 By October of each year, a list of Regular Members and Associate Members shall be posted on the Faculty Association website (shared Google Site).
- 4.06.02 All Regular and Associate Members are bound by these Bylaws and the Code of Ethics of the Association as established in Appendix "B" of these Bylaws.
- 4.06.03 Any Member who is found in breach of this Code of Ethics shall be subject to such action or discipline as is recommended by the Ethics Committee and approved by the Executive Board; however, such recommendation shall not preclude the member's right to appeal the decision to a Regular Meeting for a vote which shall be binding upon that Member.

- guide the nomination and selection process for the NISOD Excellence Award,
- designate one member to report to the membership

ARTICLE 7 -- ELECTIONS

7.01 Officers of the Association shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting and shall assume their offices on July 1 of the election year.

7.02 Voting shall be by secret ballot under the supervision of the Chief Returning Officer with members of the Nominations Committee being allowed to vote.

7.03 Elections shall take place in the following order:

- President
- Vice President Administration
- Vice President Academic
- Vice President Finance
- Vice President Communications
- Vice President Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

- Board of Governors Representative (as required)
- Joint OCFA and Olds College Councils and Committees
- Standing Committees (as required)
- Others as necessary

7.04 Nominations will be received from the Nominations Committee and from the floor of the meeting.

7.04.01 The candidate receiving a simple majority of legal ballots cast by members present shall be declared elected.

7.04.02 Each committee position shall be voted on separately.

7.05 For multiple positions on one committee, the voting shall consist of the following:

- First ballot: nominee with greatest number of votes is elected and eliminated from next ballot, and
- Second ballot: nominee with majority vote is elected and eliminated from next ballot. The process continues until all committee positions are filled.

7.06 In the event of a tie vote, a second vote shall be taken.

7.07 In the event of a second tie vote, the Chief Returning Officer shall select by lot or an agreed upon alternative method, the winning candidate.

7.08 At any Regular, Special, or Annual General Meeting, an election may take place to:

- determine the member to be recommended as the Faculty Representative on the Board of Governors, and/or
- elect members of the Academic Council, and/or
- elect members of the Faculty Development Committee, and /or
- elect members of any other OCFA committee or Joint OCFA Olds College Council or Committee where the Executive Board determines that such membership should be elected rather than appointed by the Executive Board, and/or
- elect members to replace for the remainder of the term of any member who has resigned from an elected position.

7.09 Any member may stand for re-election for any position; however, no member shall serve in any office for more than two consecutive terms, after which he must stand aside for at least one term before standing again.

7.09.01 In the event that no candidate steps forward to fill the position of President, the current President may serve one additional term.

7.09.02 If the president is unwilling to extend his term, the Vice President of Administration will act as President until a suitable candidate is elected.

7.10 Elections and Appointments

7.10.01 Any Executive Board appointment is subject to recall, if necessary, by two-thirds of the membership in attendance at a Regular, Special, or Annual General Meeting.

7.10.02 All Executive Board appointments are subject to an annual review by the Executive Board.

ARTICLE 8 -- RESIGNATION, APPOINTMENT, AND REMOVAL

8.01 Resignations from elected positions must be received in writing by the Executive Board.

8.02 In the event that any member of the Executive Board (other than the President) or any member of an elected committee shall resign or otherwise vacate his office, the Executive Board shall promptly appoint a member to serve as acting member(s) of the Executive Board or of the committee until a by-election is held (see Article 5.03).

8.03 When the Association has the right to appoint a member to an office, committee, subcommittee (internal or joint), or to other organizations that have not been created pursuant to these Bylaws, or where a member so appointed resigns or otherwise vacates such appointment, the right to appoint a representative to complete the unexpired term shall be exercised solely by the Executive Board.

8.04 Any member of the Executive Board and any elected or appointed committee member may be removed from office or committee membership by a majority vote of the members at a Regular or Special Meeting, provided that a notice of intent to remove the member has been given by the Executive Board to the member involved and to the membership at large. Notice of intent shall be served at least five days prior to the meeting at which this intention is to be voted on. A quorum for such a meeting shall be 50 percent of the members in good standing.

ARTICLE 9 -- FINANCES, BOOKS, AND RECORDS

9.01 All monies shall be kept in an account at or invested through a local bank as authorized by the Executive Board.

9.02 All cheques must be signed by the Vice President Finance and one of the following: President, Vice President Academic, Vice President Administration, or Vice President Communications; however, in the event that the Vice President Finance is incapacitated, then any two of the above named Executive Board may sign.

9.03 An association credit card will be designated for use by the V.P. Finance and the OCFA Executive Assistant to be used in the event of small cash payments for operational expenses to the maximum amount of $500. Receipts are submitted monthly to be approved by the OCFA President.

9.04 Presentation of Financial Statements

9.04.01 Monthly Balance Sheet, Income Statement and Year-to-Date Budget Variance report shall be presented to the membership at the regular monthly meetings.

9.04.02 Preliminary financial statements shall be presented to the membership at the Annual General Meeting and will be further reviewed by an independent party appointed at the Annual General Meeting. The reviewed statement shall be signed by the President and Vice President Finance in office during the fiscal year under review, and it shall be presented to the membership at the first Regular Meeting in the Fall.

- 9.05 The proposed budget for the coming year shall be distributed to the members in good standing at least five (5) days before the Annual General meeting. This budget is to be presented to the meeting by the Vice President Finance for approval by the membership.
- 9.06 Expenses shall be authorized by budget approval. The Executive Board has the power to meet all financial obligations within budgeted limits. OCFA members shall obtain written approval from the Executive Board before financial commitments are made.
- 9.07 Notwithstanding Article 9.05, budget changes may be made during a fiscal year provided such changes are approved by a Special or Regular Meeting. At least one (1) day's notice of proposed changes must be given to the members in good standing.
- 9.08 For the purpose of carrying out its objectives, the Association may borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as it considers fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures.
- 9.09 The powers of the Association under Article 9.07 shall be exercised only when approved by an Extraordinary Resolution at a Special Meeting, provided that written notice is given to the members in good standing of at least five (5) working days prior to such meeting and provided that such notice contains particulars of the proposed action.
- 9.10 The Executive Board may acquire, manage, or dispose of property on behalf of OCFA up to a value of $1,000 per item, but any item of greater value shall be subject to membership approval.
- 9.11 A maximum of $250,000 and a minimum of $75,000 shall be established for the OCFA reserve fund. In any year in which the reserve fund exceeds $250,000 as of the end of the Association fiscal year, the Association's Vice President Finance, in consultation with the Executive, shall make a recommendation as to the disposal of that particular surplus at the regular meeting in September.
- 9.12 A Contingency Fund of $25,000 will be established and maintained to be accessed by the Executive Board to address pressing and/or time sensitive legal and labour relation issues.
- 9.13 The Faculty Centre shall be managed and operated separately from the Olds College Faculty Association. However, revenues, expenses, and assets of the Faculty Centre will be recorded as part of the OCFA Vice President Finance's reports, annual budget, and financial statements. Therefore, the Faculty Centre Manager will provide an account of Faculty Centre financial activity for incorporation into the Vice President Finance's reports presented at Regular Meetings.

9.14 Books and Records

- 9.14.01 Upon written request to the Vice President Finance or the Vice President Communications, the books, general records, and correspondence of the Association may be examined at the OCFA Office by any member in good standing during regular working hours on any regular working day during the normal college year, provided that three (3) working days' notice is given.
- 9.14.02 All financial records shall be housed in the OCFA office and shall not be removed without the approval of the Vice-President Finance and the President. With the exception of an independent third party accountant retained by OCFA, financial records required for information purposes beyond the OCFA office shall be copies made from the original documents (and watermarked as Confidential and For Information Only).

ARTICLE 10 -- MEETINGS

- 10.01 At least eight (8) Regular Meetings shall be held in the period September 1 of one year to June 30 of the following year.
- 10.02 Regular Meetings are normally scheduled once per month. Under special circumstances the Executive Board may change the meeting date by giving written notice to the members of at least one (1) working day.
- 10.03 A Special Meeting may be called and normally shall deal with only the subject matter listed for consideration at the meeting; however, the Executive Board may add subject matter as needed except as identified in Article 9.06 of the Bylaws.
- 10.04 A Special Meeting shall be called by the Executive Board whenever ten or more members in good standing petition the Executive Board for such a meeting.
- 10.05 At any Regular or Annual General Meeting of the Association, the conduct of the meeting shall be as follows:
- a) the Chair shall present an agenda for approval,
 - b) any member in good standing shall be allowed to add any item related to the business of OCFA to the agenda,
 - c) a quorum for all meetings shall be 15 percent of the members in good standing (except as in Article 8.03 of the Bylaws),
 - d) if a quorum cannot be established for any meeting, the business of the meeting shall be tabled to a specified meeting date. (If at that following meeting there is no quorum, then whatever number of members in good standing are present and attending shall constitute a quorum.),
 - e) voting shall be by a show of hands (except in Article 7.02 of the Bylaws) of only those members present and voting. (A simple majority will be required for passage. In the event that members are present via visual digital technology, their show of hands will be recognized as a vote. In the event of a tie, a second vote by secret ballot shall be taken with a simple majority required for passage. In the event of a tie after the second vote, the Chair shall cast a deciding vote.), and

- f) all meetings shall be conducted using Robert’s Rules of Order save and except those items covered in these Bylaws.

10.06 An Annual General Meeting shall be held in May or June with not less than five (5) working days’ notice. Such a meeting shall consider at least the following:

- a) an annual report by the President on the year's activities.
- b) an annual report by the Faculty Representative to the Board of Governors on the year's activities.
- c) a preliminary financial statement setting out the current year's income, disbursements, assets, and liabilities presented by the Vice President Finance in accordance with Article 9.03 of the Bylaws.
- d) a projected budget for the coming fiscal year to be presented to the membership by the Vice President Finance.
- e) the election of Executive Board officers for the coming year.
- f) the election of members to OCFA committees, joint committees, and any other body requiring OCFA representation.
- g) annual reports by the Chairs of all standing committees.
- h) an annual report by the designated member of all joint OCFA and Olds College Councils.

10.06.01 If any of the above identified reports or elections are not carried out, they shall be tabled to the next Regular Meeting of the Association.

10.06.02 Notwithstanding Article 10.06 (f) of the Bylaws, for any committee requiring election rather than appointment, and in the event that no member stands for election or is elected, then the Executive Board is empowered to appoint members to those vacant positions.

ARTICLE 11 -- COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

11.01 No Collective Agreement shall be binding upon the Association, no proposed settlement shall be binding upon the Association, and no officer shall execute a Collective Agreement unless the following requirements have been met:

- a) the proposal or Collective Agreement has first been submitted to a Special meeting to consider the proposal or Collective Agreement and
- b) a majority of the members, have by secret ballot voted in favour of the Collective Agreement, or
- c) The proposed Collective Agreement will be distributed to members a minimum of two days prior to the scheduled meeting where the vote takes place.

ARTICLE 12 -- AMENDING PROCEDURE FOR BYLAWS

- 12.01 The Bylaws of the Association shall be reviewed at least once every three years by the Negotiations and Legislative Committee.
- 12.02 The Bylaws of the Association may be amended at any Annual General, Regular, or Special Meeting. All such amendments shall be by Extraordinary Resolution.

ARTICLE 13 -- DISSOLUTION

- 13.01 In the event the Association is dissolved in the course of its ordinary business, all of its assets, after payment of its liabilities, shall be distributed in one of the following ways or in a combination thereof:
- a) disposition of the assets (or portion thereof) pro rata to the current Regular Members,
 - b) assignment of the assets to a successor faculty association or to another organization designated by the Members, and/or
 - c) deed of trust to a person or corporation as designated by the Members to be held on terms approved by the Association.
- 13.02 Voluntary dissolution shall follow the same procedural provisions (notice, quorum, voting procedures, etc.) as apply to the Annual General Meeting.
- 13.03 In the event of the Association's impending involuntary dissolution as a result of legislation, regulation, or ministerial policy, all of its assets, after payment of its liabilities, shall be distributed as per Section 13.01.
- 13.04 In the event of impending dissolution, the Officers of the Association shall be specially empowered to convene a Special Meeting upon two (2) days' written notice. The quorum requirement shall be a simple majority of those members present at the meeting. At this meeting, the Officers shall put forward the evidence prompting their action in calling an Extraordinary Meeting for the purposes of dissolving the Association and distributing its assets.

ARTICLE 14 -- GIFT POLICY

- 14.01 General
- 14.01.01 OCFA will present gifts up to fifty dollars ($50) in value to members in cases of the following:
- bereavement – immediate family (parents, children, spouses and siblings)
 - birth
 - illness
 - marriage

14.01.02 Members are responsible for notifying the Executive or the OCFA Office about such events concerning oneself or one's colleagues.

14.02 Service/Recognition

14.02.01 Academic Staff Members who have served on the Executive, as a Faculty Centre Manager, or given other outstanding commitments of time be presented a commemorative gift in recognition of their service.

14.03 Leaving/Retirement

14.03.01 Guidelines for determining gift value for OCFA members who resign or retire:

- Years of Service: not less than 2 years of service.
- A fifty dollar gift allotment: the Executive Board may increase this allotment based on the formula below:

- Involvement Points:
 - a) 1 Point – Minimal involvement: pays dues; limited support for OCFA activities
 - b) 2 Points – Proportional involvement: attends meetings regularly; active involvement and participation.
 - c) 3 Points – Exceptional involvement: maintains on-going involvement necessitating major time commitments, Executive positions, active participation in standing and joint committees.
 - d) Formula: Years of Service (x) Involvement Points x $20

ARTICLE 15 – DONATION POLICY

15.01 Donation Guidelines

15.01.01 At the AGM a donation budget of up to $2000 may be approved and dispersed by the Executive Board.

15.01.02 Donation requests will be considered as “in kind” values.

15.02 Not for Profit Organization

15.02.01 The Olds College Faculty Association is a not- for-profit organization. Generally, requests for donations will be denied. However, requests in writing will be considered by the Executive Board if it:

- applies to members
- benefits members
- college activity
- furthers the profile of faculty
- enhances the profile of faculty in the community
- as a responsibility of membership in ACIFA

- is a donation to Christmas Collection for Student Emergency Fund.
- is for Spring Fling

15.03 Death of a Member

15.03.01 Upon the death of a member, a donation equalling the amount of the gift value, as outlined in 14.03.01, shall be used to memorialize the member.

APPENDIX A

POST-SECONDARY LEARNING ACT

Article 1 (This Article to be updated when changes are made to the Post-secondary Learning Act)

85(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council shall by order establish an academic staff association for each public post-secondary institution other than the Banff Centre.

(2) Each academic staff association is a corporation with the name given to it by the Lieutenant Governor in Council and consists of the academic staff members of the public post-secondary institution.

APPENDIX B

CODE OF ETHICS

This Code represents minimum standards of professional conduct and is intended as a guide for members of the Olds College Faculty Association.

This Code deals generally with the professional relationship between an Academic Staff Member and the students, one's colleagues, the Association, or the College. This Code shall not supersede the basic human and legal rights of the individual.

This Code shall apply to all members of the Olds College Faculty Association. Matters arising from breaches of this Code will be handled within the framework of the Bylaws of the Olds College Faculty Association.

ARTICLES

Article 1 When performing professional duties, Academic Staff Members will demonstrate integrity, honour and respect for students, faculty and staff of Olds College. In statements outside the College, a faculty member retains the responsibility of seeking truth and stating it as he sees it. However, unless specifically authorized to do so, he should not imply that he is speaking in the name of the College.

Article 2 A primary responsibility of an Academic Staff Member is the dissemination of knowledge and understanding through teaching. Through professional development, the Academic Staff Member will devote his energies conscientiously to develop his effectiveness and competence as a teacher.

An Academic Staff Member will be conscientious in the preparation and organization of subject matter.

An Academic Staff Member will continually strive to improve methods of presentation of subject matter to the students.

An Academic Staff Member will strive to encourage the free exchange of ideas between himself and his students.

An Academic Staff Member shall not initiate or permit the initiation of a sexual relationship with a student (excluding spouse) while they are in a student/faculty relationship; or where it is reasonable to assume that they may (in the future) be in a student/faculty relationship.

An Academic Staff Member will not exploit a student for private or public gain.

An Academic Staff Member will keep in confidence information gained about a student's academic progress, personal life, or political and religious views. Any disclosure of information regarding students must comply with the Freedom of Information and Protection Act (FOIP).

Article 3 An Academic Staff Member has the obligation to defend the right of his colleagues to academic freedom.

An Academic Staff member shall support colleagues in the performance of their professional duties.

An Academic Staff Member shall avoid unfavourable criticism of an associate except when made to the immediate supervisor, and then in confidence, and after the associate has been informed of the nature of the criticism.

Article 4 The Academic Staff Member will fulfill the contractual obligations entered into between the Association and the Employer.

AMENDMENT PROCEDURE

This Code may be amended by the Association, by normal resolution, at a legally constituted meeting.

PROCEDURAL GUIDELINES FOR INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF THE CODE OF ETHICS

- 1.01 In the event that a member or members of the Association assert charges of a violation of this Code, he/she shall present these charges in writing to the Ethics Committee, with a copy to the respondent. Complaints shall set out, as far as possible, full details including at least the following:
- * The nature of the charge or complaint.
 - * The name or names of other Association members involved.
 - * The time, date, and place of alleged violation.
- 1.02 In the event that the complainant(s) or the respondent(s) is a member of the Ethics Committee or of the Executive Board, he shall vacate his position for the duration of the hearing. His position shall be temporarily assumed by an Association member appointed by the Executive Board.
- 1.03 The Ethics Committee shall investigate any alleged unethical conduct in accordance with the following guidelines:
- a) The Committee shall meet within seven days of receiving a written communication or complaint.
 - b) The Committee shall make a decision as to whether the matter falls within its jurisdiction and shall inform the complainant(s) and the respondent(s) of its decision to proceed or not to proceed with the charge.

- b) In the event of a decision to proceed, the Committee may seek further information from the complainant(s), the respondent(s), or other members.
- i) If the request and the reply are in writing, copies of the correspondence and any supporting documents shall be provided to the complainant(s) and the respondent(s).
(Procedural Guidelines, continued)
 - ii) If the requests are oral, the complainant(s) and the respondent(s) shall be invited to be present at such consultations.
- d) The Committee may request further information, in writing, from specific persons outside the Association.
- i) Copies of any such request, together with copies of any replies and supporting documentation shall be presented to the complainant(s) and the respondent(s),
 - ii) The complainant(s) and the respondent(s) shall be invited to be present at such consultations,
- e) The Committee shall within twenty days render its decision in writing to the Executive Board and recommend either a disciplinary measure(s) or no further action.
- i) If the recommendation is disciplinary, the Executive Board has the power to undertake any of the following measures:
 - reprimand the Member,
 - suspend selected Member privileges,
 - submit a report to the College president.
- f) The Committee shall submit copies of its decision to the complainant(s) as well as to the respondent(s). This report shall specify the date or dates upon which any penalty or penalties are to be applied.
- i) “Days” shall be interpreted to mean working days and, in this procedure, shall be computed exclusive of the months of June, July, and August.

1.04

Special Cases

The Ethics Committee may investigate a possible violation of this ethics code without a complaint having been made. In such cases, the Committee shall proceed without a complainant, but otherwise complying with 1.03, commencing with 1.03 (b).

APPEAL PROCEDURE

Either party to a charge of a violation of this Code may, within 30 days, submit a written appeal of the decision or decisions of the Ethics Committee to the Executive Board.
